

HAZELMERE UNITED CHURCH NEWSLETTER

April – July 2019

A message from Rev. Lori Megley-Best

During the season of Lent we increase our practices for staying connected to God. Prayer and reading scripture are the most effective ways to do that.

Here is a Lenten prayer to use during the season of Lent:

Somewhere in this day, O God, let me be surprised by love.

Move me beyond taking life for granted. Remind me to notice the color of someone's eyes.

Quiet me enough to search, really search, the sky—

A palette of golds, blues, and whites—

Monochromatic at first glance, but then...

Urge me to take off my shoes and to walk upon your earth---

Skin to skin, dust to dust.

Amen.

From "The Awkward Season" by Pamela Hunt

May you observe a Holy Lent,

Rev. Lori
